

NEW REALTY FIRM BUYS BUSINESS OF JORDAN COMPANY

Real Estate Trust Company
Takes Over Corporation
by Purchase.

An important change in real estate interests was completed today when the corporation of Jordan & Co. went out of business through its purchase by the Real Estate Trust Company, the new real estate and financial corporation recently organized.

The United States Trust Company has leased the former offices of Jordan & Co. in the Southern building, and will add the space to their banking rooms. Bert T. Amos, F. A. Van Rensselaer and E. Cateby Rowzee, formerly of Jordan & Co., have become associated with the Real Estate Trust Company. Jordan & Co. has been an important real estate, loan, and insurance company for a number of years, representing the real estate interests of Eldridge E. Jordan, president of the United States Trust Company, and doing a general business.

Buyers Store.

Mrs. Rita L. DeRuiz has purchased from Harry Wardman the two-story store and apartment at 2215 Eleventh street northwest for $8,000. The purchase was made for an investment. The building is one of six which Mr. Wardman has just finished at Eleventh street and Kalorama avenue. The sale was made through the office of Shannon & Luchs. They also report the sale to Louis A. Reinberg of the two-story dwelling at 181 Uhland terrace, at the corner of Second street northwest, for $3,750. Mr. Reinberg will occupy the house. It is one of the highview apartments, which Mr. Wardman is building.

To Move Offices.

The William A. Boss Company will move their offices from the site of the new Interstate building on F street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, to 1320 New York avenue northwest. The new offices will be taken temporarily.

MRS. SOUDER MAY SURVIVE INJURIES

Woman Who Was Shot By Daughter-in-Law, Resting Easily.

Hope is expressed by physicians at the Casualty Hospital today for the recovery of Mrs. Olive Souder, forty-four years old, of 1615 Gales street northeast, who was shot yesterday morning by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rosa Padgett, of 701 Sixteenth street northeast. The bullet was removed last night, and this morning it was said that Mrs. Souder was resting easily.

Mrs. Padgett is held at the House of Detention on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. She declares the shooting was an accident, saying she was endeavoring to "bluff" her mother-in-law to leave her home when the weapon, an old "revolver" pistol, was unintentionally discharged. Unless there is a change for the worse in Mrs. Souder's condition, arrangements probably will be made this afternoon or tomorrow for Mrs. Padgett's release on bond. Mrs. Souder says she does not want to prosecute her daughter-in-law.

SENATE GIVES AID TO FLOODED AREA

Passes House Bill Appropriating $300,000 to Relief Fund.

After some discussion today the Senate passed the bill recently passed by the House appropriating $300,000 for the purpose of protecting the levees on the Mississippi river and tributaries and maintaining them against the flood. Senator Heyburn objected to the fact the expression "impending flood" was used. He held this unduly limited the use of the fund.

MRS. JOHN J. WHITE IS HELD BY POLICE WHEN CAR HITS BOY

Mother of Mrs. Suydam Arrested in Philadelphia; Later Released.

Mrs. John Jay White, formerly of this city, was arrested in Philadelphia last night and obliged to remain at police headquarters in that city several hours following an automobile accident, when her motor car crushed a small boy. Later she was released when bail of $1,500 had been furnished for her chauffeur.

The chauffeur for J. Everett Enoch, a Philadelphia attorney, and occupant of the other automobile which figured in the accident, was held in the sum of $2,500, which was furnished by his employer, Edward Bryson, the boy who was injured, is said to be in a serious condition.

Mrs. White is the mother of Mrs. Louise Lawrence Suydam, who, in September, 1911, disappeared from the home of her millionaire husband, at Blue Point, L. I., and eloped with Frederick Noble, son of a Brooklyn plumber. Later the couple ended their lives by inhaling illuminating gas. Mrs. White formerly occupied a handsome residence at 1724 N street northwest, but after her daughter's tragic death closed the place and went to live in Philadelphia.

HEAD OF DISTRICT COMMITTEE LAUDS ELKS AT FESTIVAL

Congressman Ben Johnson Tells of Work Accomplished by Order.

Telling of the benevolent work of the B. P. O. Elks, Congressman Ben Johnson of Kentucky, chairman of the House District Committee, last night in a short but impressive speech opened the eight-day spring festival of the Elks in their home in H street northwest.

Cloudy weather did not keep people from attending, and up until midnight the building was crowded with members and friends of the order. Between 600 and 1,000 persons attended.

"While I had always heard of the Elks from the time of my first recollection, they attracted my attention at the time of the terrible San Francisco disaster," said Mr. Johnson. "They were among the first to dispatch trainloads of supplies."

"Perceiving the great good that these men were doing, I became possessed of a desire to be one of them, and I am a member of the lodge in Kentucky. I cherish the greatest of all heavenly virtues, and it is practiced here in Elksdom to a most commendable degree. This festival is in the interest of the Washington lodge's charity fund, and I trust it will be successful beyond the most sanguine expectations."

BICKNELL RETURNS FROM FLOOD DISTRICT

Director of Red Cross Society, Who Has Been in South, Needed There No Longer.

Director E. P. Bicknell, of the American Red Cross Society, who is now in the Cairo-Memphis flooded district along the Mississippi river, is expected to return to Washington tomorrow. No word was received from him this morning, and a telegram addressed to him from headquarters here was reported undelivered.

Despite the pessimistic reports sent to headquarters by Director Bicknell yesterday, it is thought that his decision to return to Washington indicates that relief work is going forward as well as it can be handled, and that his presence is no longer needed. The Red Cross today sent $12,000 more to Shanghai for Chinese famine relief. This brings the total amount sent to China to $134,000.

Lunchroom Quarrel Leads to $15 Fine

Trouble over the occupancy of a chair in a lunch room on New York avenue brought William J. Reider into Police Court today on an assault charge. Ernest C. Hunter, an architect, was the complaining witness, and Judge A. E. Mulwren found Reider guilty, and fined him $15.

The complaining witness said he was reserving a chair in the lunch room for a friend, on April 6, and that Reider insisted on taking the seat. Hunter said that when he objected, Reider struck him three times in the face.

GRAND JURY IS INSTRUCTED TO PROBE BRIBERY

Annapolis Judge Urges Full Investigation of All Rumors.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 14.—The language used by Judge James Brashers this morning while charging the grand jury to investigate allegations of bribery in connection with the local option bill before the legislature, and the presence of thirty or more witnesses, indicated the investigation will go beyond the original allegation of Delegate William R. Smallwood, of Prince George county, implicating John F. O'Malley.

The list of witnesses includes William R. Baldwin, the jurymen, whose absence delayed proceedings yesterday, was on hand this morning, and the members of the grand jury were selected promptly and charged by Judge Brashers. Judge Brashers emphasized the fact that the investigation was not to stop with this case, but to include any rumors of bribery which might be brought to their attention.

The list also includes the members of the grand jury, who testified that she heard some of the conversation and Smallwood himself. This includes the members of the investigating committee of the house, the whole delegation from Frederick county and other members.

Escapes From Asylum, Caught Again Today

Mary Hansborough, forty-nine years old, an alleged kleptomaniac, escaped last night from the Washington Asylum Hospital, where she had been sent for observation as to her mental condition, following her arrest on a charge of shoplifting about two weeks ago.

This afternoon Detectives O'Brien and Springman located the woman in a downtown department store, the same one in which she was arrested before. The detectives say they found her in possession of a handbag and a quantity of lace which, it is alleged, she had picked up from the counter without paying for. She was sent back to the asylum.

Prelates Attend Episcopal Meeting

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 14.—With many of the leading bishops, rectors, and laymen of the Episcopal Church present from all parts of the country, the annual national Episcopal Church Congress was opened in this city today with a service of holy communion. The congress will be in session four days. The congress, which has no legislative function, is held principally to provide a forum for the free discussion of live topics by all classes of churchmanship. The principal subjects scheduled for discussion by the present congress are: "The Good and Evil in Trades Unions," "The Sanctity of Marriage," "The Possibility of Unity in Church Government," "Official Censorship in the Interest of Morals," "Conversion as a Christian Experience," and "Music As An Aid to Religion."
